Student Association Constitution: Article II – Legislative Branch, Section 8 Legislation

A. Every bill shall, after passage by the Student Senate, be submitted to the Student Association President by the Student Association Secretary. The bill shall become a statute unless the Student Association President returns the bill, in full, to the Student Association Secretary with his objections within six days of receiving the bill or resolution. The senate can override a Presidential veto by a two-thirds majority. Upon approval by the Student Association President, or overrule of presidential veto by the Senate, the bill shall become a statute.

B. Every resolution shall, after passage by the Student Senate, be submitted to the Student Association President by the Student Association Secretary. The resolution shall be approved unless the Student Association President returns the resolution, in full, to the Student Association Secretary with his objections within six days of receiving the resolution. The Senate can override a Presidential veto by a two-thirds majority. Upon approval by the Student Association President, or overrule of presidential veto by the Senate, the resolution shall be delivered to the University President or the appropriate department chairperson.
